MONDAY, MAY 28, 1866.

In the House of Representatives, on Saturday, Mr. Stevens submitted a proposition that certain officers of the Treasury Department be appointed by concurrent resolution. In urging this proposition he used very strong language towards the President and some of his Secretaries; even going so far as to hint that articles of impeachment should be brought forward within a week.

If Mr. Stevens believes anything has been done deserving of impeachment, it is his right and duty to bring forward articles to that end. But violent threatenings only damage him and his friends.

As we read the Constitution it does not warrant the appointment of officers in the manner proposed by Mr. Stevens. Among the masses of the people there is just as strong a disposition to hold Congress to rigid accountability, as to hold the President.

When Secretary Harlan was asked to consort with rebels and copperheads to overthrow the republican party, he frankly responded:

"I have been four times elected to a seat in the United States Senate by the Legislature of Iowa, as a representative of the Union party, and as a member of that organization I was appointed to the office I now hold. To betray the confidence thus reposed in me would be a manifestation of ingratitude so glaringly dishonorable, that I am sure no intelligent member of your organization expects it, nor can it be expected that I will do or say anything which would, in my opinion, tend to divide, weaken or demoralize the great Union organization until the purposes of its creation shall have been fully accomplished."

There spake a high-toned gentleman, who would not do "an underhanded thing." Will the Commercial and other adulators of Mr. Cowan, make a note of what he said?

The Democrats of Ohio, assembled in State Convention on the 24th inst., were tender-footed in their endorsement of the President. Hear them:

"We will cordially and actively support Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, in all necessary and proper measures, to carry out his policy as directed to that end, and especially in securing immediate representation in the Senate and House of Representatives to the eleven States, now unconstitutionally and arbitrarily withheld on the degrading condition of inferiority in the Union and negro, political and civil equality enforced by the Federal Government."

Which, being interpreted, means, so far as the President plays into the hands of the Democrats, in their efforts to regain political power, they will applaud him, and when they have gained their end, they will "whistle him down the wind."

The Nashville, (Tenn.) Press says:

"My policy" is sparing no effort to rebuild the old pet faction, the Southern Secession Democracy, in order to secure his re-election to the Presidency, which is the sole object of all his labor."

"Arrangements are being made to secure the representation of the eleven Southern States in the next Democratic convention. The New York Daily News is already circulating as a campaign document in the South, and it is mooted in influential quarters that both Fernando Wood and Voorhees will be strong candidates for the Vice Presidency. A man by the name of Curtis is now traveling through the South as agent for the paper, which he furnishes gratuitously to those who can't be induced to pay for it. The money for this enterprise is believed to come out of the city treasury of New York.

The call of the Republican Central Committee of Illinois for a State Convention, is addressed to the "Republican Union voters of Illinois who are in favor of keeping traitors out of the halls of Congress, and of asserting and maintaining the right of the loyal people, through their Representatives in Congress, to fix and determine the condition on which States lately in rebellion shall be permitted to participate in the government of the United States."

The Republicans of Juniata county have nominated for Congress, John J. Patterson, (subject to the District Conference;) Assembly, Henry H. Wilson, (subject to the District Conference;) Associate Judges, Joseph Pomeroy, Lucian Wilson; Prothonotary, John M. Thompson; Commissioner, Jacob Weiser; District Attorney, Jeremiah Lyons; Auditor, Thomas Morrow.

On 'Change, in Cincinnati, on Saturday, a resolution was offered to the effect that the action of the Chamber in 1862, requiring the members to take the oath of allegiance, and expulsion of those who refused, was rendered unnecessary, now that the rebellion is at an end, and that, therefore, the disability be removed. It was accepted and made the special order for next meeting.

The caucus of the republican members of the Senate to consider the Reconstruction Amendments has had a beneficial effect. Conflicting views will be reconciled, and the measure put in such form as to secure the unanimous support of all the Senators who act with the republican party.

When the national authorities banished Mr. Vallandigham the democrats were enraged. Now, they purpose to raise among themselves $50,000, to send him to Europe for three years, until present political complications shall have ceased.

Maximilian and his empire are in a bad way. His European backers are likely to have employment at home for all their time and resources; and this contingency will leave him no other course than to abdicate and leave.

The Washington serenade was devised to constrain all the members of the Cabinet to accept the President's Policy, or to afford a pretext for removals. As unity was not secured, removals may be expected to follow.

The financial revulsion in England resulted from the multiplication of enterprises purely speculative. It remains true evermore, that "they who make haste to be rich fall into temptation and a snare."

The republicans in the Senate have ceased to invite Doolittle, Dixon, and Cowan to their caucusses. They have, at least, a suspicion those gentlemen will do "an underhanded thing."

Mr. Robert Dale Owen has been giving some foolish and mischievious hints that a renewal of the war is contemplated by the republicans. Nothing can be farther from fact.

St. Louis has taken a fresh start since the war closed, and shot far ahead of its rival, Chicago. It now claims 230,000 inhabitants.

Texas papers say it has rained there steadily for a week.

An Error.

In our notice, in Saturday's edition, of Dr. Quincy A. Scott's method of extracting teeth without pain, we intended to say there is NOT one case in which it has produced injurious effects, instead of there is but one case, &c. The Doctor will guarantee entire safety in every case. Remember his number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand. He gives a full set, on vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars.—Pittsburgh Post.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Read the following letter from E. Bourne, a well known citizen of Pittsburgh, Pa.:

PITTSBURGH, May 10th, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen: During a visit in the west last fall I contracted chills and fever which brought me to my bed and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health; having entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I became much distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by the fever. At this juncture my physician friend recommended me to use your celebrated stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterwards yielded to my principles and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, as directed, my appetite returned and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep, (from the loss of which I had suffered much,) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to,) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and in fact I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others suffering as I have may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice prevented me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect your Bitters had on me, recommended that I use them regularly. Yours, very respectfully,

E. BOURNE,
No. 45 Market street.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Indictment against Jeff. Davis—Statement Contradicted—His Trial Not to Take place in Washington—Restrictions for Pardons Diminished—Destitution of Freedmen from Texas—Collecting, and Burying the Dead at Hampton, &c., &c. National Fair for the Benefit of Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.

Washington, May 26.—There seems to be good authority for denying the correctness of the statement which has been extensively published, that a new indictment against Jeff. Davis has been drawn up in the Attorney General's office since Mr. Speed's return to Washington, and that Judge Underwood's indictment will be withdrawn and a new one substituted. It is not improbable, however, some changes may be made in the indictment presented by the Norfolk Grand Jury. The impression still exists that the trial will not take place before fall.

Applicants for pardon are not so numerous as they were a few months ago, but those who apply personally are none the less unfortunate. Pardons were granted to-day to thirteen persons of the classes included in the first and fifteenth clauses of the amnesty proclamation.

General Sprague, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Arkansas, has forwarded to the Commissioner, under date of the fifteenth instant, a communication from Captain Abell, a superintendent of the Bureau in that State, which says that the freedmen are coming in from Texas daily in Texas, in a destitute condition, and report that anarchy and despotism reign there. Many are driven from their homes and families, and many have been shot and hung for expressing a desire to enjoy their rights as freedmen.

General Sprague, in concluding his letter, says that it is very probable the report is exaggerated, and he is of the opinion that is, although Captain Abell has never shown a disposition to repeat sensational rumors.

The workmen engaged in collecting and burying the soldiers and sailors who died in the service, in and about Hampton, Va., report that they have thus far re-interred in the cemetery at Hampton, the remains of about 4,000 men. As most of these men died of wounds or disease in the Peninsular campaign of Fortress Monroe, their names, rank and regiments are all known.

Active preparations are making for the national fair for the benefit of the Sailors and Soldiers' Orphans Home. A spacious building is now in course of erection at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street for the fair, and a large force is daily employed number of soldiers who are acting as carpenters. They commenced the building this morning.

FROM NEW YORK.

Cholera Report—Head Center Stephens Asked to Define His Policy and Account for the Funds Collected for Himself and Family—The Caucus of Republican Senators on Reconstruction—The Governor and Lobby for the Full Value of Notes of National Banks.

New York, May 26.—There have been no deaths recently from cholera on board the hospital ship Falcon, and the patients are nearly all well. The following is Dr. Bissell's report:

"Hospital Ship, May 25, 1866.

The report of the condition of the hospital for May 25th is very meagre. No admissions or deaths, all being well and anxious to be discharged and wend their way to the fertile valleys of the West."

Nothing of importance transpired to-day at Head Center Stephens' headquarters. It is stated that the circles in Manhattan and other districts have resolved to discontinue giving any pecuniary aid to Mr. Stephens till he defines his policy and renders an account of the funds hitherto collected for himself and his family.

The evening papers say the proceedings in the Republican Senate caucus revealed the fact that more than two-thirds will support the Constitutional Amendment in a modified form. The third section will probably be stricken out. Probably a substitute for the whole amendment will be offered in the Senate. Messrs. Doolittle, Cowan and Dixon were not invited to take part in the caucus.

Lieutenant General Grant and wife intend visiting St. Louis and other portions of the West next week.

Treasurer Spinner, in a communication to the Herald, says that, according to the act of Congress, the government is liable for the face value of all notes of National Banks, and that no case has arisen in which note-holders have suffered any loss. In other words, the government does not act in the capacity of a joint trustee of the National Banks and the holders of their notes to pay the latter such sums as it may realize from the sales of the assets of the former, but it stands as the perfectly secured reimbursement of every circulating note issued by a National Bank.

Capture of a Murderer.

Louisville, May 27.—Terrill, the murderer, was captured by the citizens of Shelbyville yesterday, and sent here to-day. He received three shots before being captured, and it is supposed they will prove mortal. A man named Baden was also captured with him. A third associate escaped.

A rumor prevailed there that a large body of Fenians moved northward from this vicinity to-night. Their destination is unknown.

Councilman Absconded—Investments in Fenian Bonds.

Louisville, May 26.—Ben. S. Board, council man of this city, has absconded. He is said to be guilty of forgery and fraud.

At Nashville over $1,000 was invested in Fenian bonds last night. Several Fenian parties left en route for the Northern frontier.

CONTINENTAL SITUATION UNCHANGED

New York, May 26.—The following additional news is by the steamers Saxonia and America:

A Milan telegram of the 18th states regiments of troops continue to arrive. Six thousand were expected all together, and will be removed from Frivoli to Padua. Depots for the Austrian military service in Venetia have been established at Gratz, and a considerable force stationed on the Tyrol. The garrison of Venice is to be raised to 24,000. Gunboats have been stationed and many torpedoes sunk in the outer harbor of Venice.

The rinderpest had appeared in Ireland. Several French journals received warning for representing that the Government is provoking war.

The La Presse says many communications have been exchanged between the Cabinets during the suspense.

The departure of the Vienna garrison for Bohemia has commenced.

The substitution of money for military exemption was abolished.

Latest.—A Berlin dispatch of the 24th says: A conditional treaty of alliance was signed on Saturday between Prussia and Italy.

The correspondence between the King of Prussia and the Czar is believed to have been connected with the creation of the Duchy of Warsaw, and in which the Czar has not interfered in favor of peace.

Vienna dates of the 18th state that an imperial ordinance will shortly be published, declaring that Austria will legally no longer be liable to capture by Austrian vessels of war, simply because they belong to a nation with which Austria is at war.

The Florence telegraph says a special decree has been issued, ordering all soldiers of the second cavalry of 1844 to be incorporated with the regular army. They have already been called together in the Abruzzi districts.

The Senate approved, by a vote of 70 to 6, the bill granting the executive extraordinary powers to provide for the public safety.

The Opinione thinks that if a formal proposal should be made to that effect, Italy should accept it upon two conditions, viz: That she may remain armed and that the cession of Venetia be included in the programme of the Congress. These conditions are essential.

A Milan telegram states that two thousand Austrian sailors arrived at Venice for defence of the Lagunes, and orders were issued to organize a body of 1,200 boatmen, for transporting soldiers to the Island of Lido.

Twenty-two thousand Austrian troops passed through Verona.

A Trieste telegram says the Italian squadron had left the Bay of Larento and taken up a position in the Adriatic, between Ancona and the Island of Grassa, thereby closing the Gulf of Trieste and threatening Venice, Trieste, Poland and Fuenne.

A Frankfort telegram says a motion will shortly be introduced in the Diet, for the mobilization of the federal army. It will also be proposed that Austria and Prussia be called upon to withdraw their troops from the fortresses of Mentz and Ralstodt; that they may be occupied by the federal forces.

The London Shipping Gazette of the evening of the 25th announces that the Bank of England had raised the interest for advances on stock to twelve per cent., in consequence of the great pressure for assistance in this shape by speculative accounts. On the stock it will change the demand for discount accommodation was active. At the Bank, the Directors are striving hard not to infringe the charter by taking advantage of the power granted them by the Government.

Hallett, O'Menarly & Co., bankers, and Griffith & Buston, Stock Brokers, have suspended. Several failures have been reported from Liverpool.

The liabilities of Wakefield, Nash & Co. are £200,000, and of Penny & Co., £140,000, with assets both nearly half.

Latest via Queenstown.—Liverpool, May 17th.—The race for the Derby to-day was won by Lord Lyon. Bribery colt was second and Rustic third. Twenty-four horses ran.

The steamship Virginia has arrived from New York, arrived at Queenstown to-day.

The war question is unchanged. There are, however, more pacific rumors from Paris, and the chance of an European Congress is improving. It is asserted that Prussia and Italy have assented. The Austrian reply was not received.

A Trieste dispatch of the 16th says the Austrian volunteers about to proceed to Mexico will, it is stated, sail under the French flag.

Fernie Bros., of Liverpool, have suspended. Their liabilities are very large, but their assets considerably in excess. Other suspensions are reported.

Liverpool, May 17—p. m.—Cotton dull, with little inquiry, and prices weak; the sales for two days reach only 10,000 bales. Speculators and exporters took 1,500 bales. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions inactive, except Lard, which is firmer; sales at 59@61s.

London, May 17—p. m.—Consols, 89¾@87⅝ for money; U. S. Five-twenties, 65¾@66; Erie shares, 45@46; Illinois Central shares, 76¾@77¾.

The Omd says. The conduct of the United States relative to the recent Fenian agitation in Ireland has been most satisfactory.

It is believed that the cattle plague will not exceed 100,000 victims.

A Berne telegram says: The Italian troops who have been stationed on the frontier of the Vaintine, have been withdrawn to the interior of the Kingdom.

A Murich telegram states that the Governments of Bavaria and Baden are in favor of armed neutrality.

A Coblentz dispatch says: The 7th and 8th Prussian army corps are to be concentrated there and at Wetzlar.

A Rio Janeiro telegram of April 24th says: The operations of the allied army upon the Paraguayan position had been pushed forward.

BY THE CITY OF BOSTON.

New York, May 27.—The City of Boston has arrived from Liverpool on the 16th, and Queenstown on the 17th.

The City of London was out on the 15th and Nova Scotian on the 16th.

In both Houses of Parliament, the bombardment of Valparaiso has been noticed in terms of indignation, but the neutrality of the British Admiral was defended and fully endorsed by the Government. The English press and people loudly denounce the act of Spain. An indignation meeting at Liverpool adopted a resolution of protest, and also resolutions expressing gratitude for the exertions of Commodore Rogers, United States Navy.

The financial panic continued sensibly to subside. Many difficulties are yet anticipated, but it is believed the effects are less disastrous than former panics. Leading securities were decidedly improved. The discount demand at the Bank of England continued extremely large. The nominal rate remains at ten per cent. There is also an active specie demand for the continent.

There has been no additional suspensions at Liverpool.

The Continental situation remains unchanged. The military attitude of the various powers is very threatening.

It is reported that Bismarck receives daily warnings of imminent assassination.

It is estimated that within a few weeks will have nine thousand men in the field. Large bodies of troops, sent from Vienna, had already affected a strategic concentration on the Prussian frontier.

Liverpool, May 16.—Morning.—The cotton market has been steady, with fair trade demand. Prices of American and long stapled descriptions are full one-eighth higher. Middling uplands quoted at about 13d. The sales of Monday and Tuesday amounted to about 13,000 bales, including 3,000 for exporters and speculators.

Trade at Manchester yesterday was on a limited scale. The prices offered were generally below the views of producers and little actual business was transacted.

Breadstuffs.—Richardson, Spencer & Co., Bruce, McAuliff, and others report flour quiet, but steady. Wheat in steady demand, at full rates. White Red, 10s 50@11s 8d per cental. Indian Corn firm and in good demand, at 30s@30s 3d per 480 pounds for mixed.

Mass Meeting of Fenians—Case of an Alleged Embezzler—Homicide—Defense of a Catholic Clergyman.

New York, May 27.—A Mass Meeting of Fenians was held at Cooper Institute last night. Stephens delivered a short address.

The case of Louis A. Colon, before mentioned as an embezzler of money and securities to the amount of forty thousand dollars, from Duncan, Sherman & Co., was before the Courts yesterday.

Richard Polland, a tailor, was murdered last night in a tenement house on East Fourth street, by William Cormack, his late employee. The latter is still at large.

Rev. Doctor Pise, pastor of a Catholic Church in Brooklyn, died yesterday, aged sixty-five years.

SENATOR COWAN AN APOSTATE.

Mr. Stevens Threatens to Arraign the President and Subordinates for Malfeasance in Office.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN THE HOUSE.

Washington City, May 26, 1866.

HOUSE.

The business of the morning hour was dispensed with.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, the Senate amendment to the House bill relating to passports was concurred in. The bill has therefore passed both Houses.

On motion of Mr. Davis, the Senate bill granting aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Central Pacific Railroad in California to Portland, Oregon, was taken from the Speaker's table, read twice and referred to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Brownell introduced a bill to provide for computing bounties of veteran volunteers so as to protect their rights. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs. It proposes to exempt the hundred dollar bounty from the Tennessee legislature, of what it is to be deducted, under the bill to equalize bounties.

Mr. Cutler offered a resolution, which was adopted, requiring the secretary of the Interior to furnish certain papers and all applications for the reissue of the Dundas patent for outwater.

Mr. Lawrence, of Pennsylvania, made a personal explanation, retracting for a certain extent some remarks which he had made in a running debate, a few weeks since, reflecting on the character of Col. McKelvey, recently appointed United States Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Woodbridge introduced a joint resolution referring to the claim of Richard W. Meade to the Court of Claims, which was read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

On motion of Mr Cook, the Senate bill making further provision for the establishment of an armory and arsenal at Rock Island, Illinois, was taken from the Speaker's table, read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. Dawes in the Chair, and resumed the consideration of the tax bill.

Mr. Morrill, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a new paragraph for that amending section 103 of the existing law, and which had been reserved some days since. It imposes a tax of 2½ per cent. on the gross earnings from passengers and mails of railroads, canals, steamboat and stage coach companies, provided that such companies shall have the right to add a tax their fares.

On motion of Mr Farnsworth, the last proviso was struck out and the amendment so modified was agreed to.

Mr. Hotchkiss moved to add to the amendment a proviso that horse railroads shall have the right to add tax to their fare.

Mr. Stevens thought it would be much better to let the Pennsylvania Legislature have their charters amended, so that they should charge what might be thought right rather than let them add on the tax.

Mr. Lodge also opposed the amendment, instancing the management of horse railroads in New York city.

Mr. Davis spoke in favor of the amendment and in favor of horse railroad companies.

The debate was closed by the previous question.

Mr. Hotchkiss' amendment was rejected.

Mr. Lynch offered an amendment exempting from tax those railroads operated in cities whose population does not exceed 40,000, which was rejected.

The second section, which had been passed over informally yesterday, was amended in some particulars. The only important question, however, of it, being the striking out of the word "alcohol" from the sentence prohibiting stills to be used where lager beer, etc., is manufactured.

While the sections relating to distillers were under consideration, Mr. Conklin stated, as a matter of justice to Mr. Winfield, that that gentleman had exerted himself in the Committee of Ways and Means to protect the interests of distillers against adverse action, and was only prevented from carrying these efforts in the House by illness, which confined him to his room.

A different section was inserted assessing, requiring every officer of internal revenue whose payment shall be derived in whole or in part from fees, commissions, to render a statement under oath of the entire amount of such fees and commissions, any falsehood in such statement to be deemed wilful perjury.

The remaining section of the existing law was amended so as to make it take effect on the 15th of September, 1866. The blanks for salaries were filled up as follows: Commissioner, $5,000; Deputy, $3,000; Deputy Commissioner, $3,000; Cashier, $3,000, two Deputy Commissioners, $3,000; Solicitor, $4,000; seven heads of divisions, $2,500. The salary of the Special Commissioner was changed from $4,000 to $5,000.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, by instruction of the Judiciary Committee, offered several additional resolutions, one to regulate legal proceedings under the act which creates the Court.

Mr. Stevens, of Pa., moved to amend the 65th section by striking out the words "the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to appoint an officer in his department who shall be styled Commissioner," and inserting in lieu of this "Congress, by a concurrent motion, shall elect a Special Commissioner."

Mr. Stevens said: I am done giving patronage to the Secretary of the Treasury where it can be avoided. He has already said that he will appoint no officer in his department to obtain the policy of the President. He, this morning, distinctly so informed a member of the House who called upon him for an appointment. I, therefore, instead of leaving the matter to the discretion of the President's policy, and when he declined to answer him, he said, "I cannot appoint, and I will not, those who will not carry out the policy of the President." The Secretary then referred to an apostate Senator from that region and said, "I will consult him when I make the appointments, and I will appoint nobody not recommended by him." It is therefore for this House to let the people of the country know whether officers are to be sacrificed for subordinating themselves to the views of the President. If we do not stand by them, they will not stand by us, and they ought not. It is time that we built up a wall against such tyranny, and unless the loyal members of legislators and exporters took 1,500 bales. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions inactive, except Lard, which is firmer; sales at 59@61s.

London, May 17—p. m.—Consols, 89¾@87⅝ for money; U. S. Five-twenties, 65¾@66; Erie shares, 45@46; Illinois Central shares, 76¾@77¾.

GREAT FIRE IN OIL CITY.

Nearly the Entire East Side in Ashes—Loss $1,000,000.

Oil City, May 26.—A terrible conflagration is now raging in this city. Nearly the entire east side of the city is in ashes. The loss will be enormous. Among the buildings already consumed are six hotels, fifty dwellings and seventy-five stores. Included in this devastation are some of the finest establishments in the city. As the fire is still unabated, it is impossible to estimate the loss.

A later dispatch puts down the loss at one million, and insurance at one hundred thousand dollars. The following are among the principal sufferers:

Gordon and White, mercantile building, $40,000, Insured $5,000; Fox, Fuller and Company, lumber, $70,000, Insurance $12,000; Robson and Company, pipe works, $30,000, Insured $5,000; Alfred Wright, tools and fittings, loss heavy; Bishop and Dawson, dry goods, $10,000, Insured $5,000; Burchfield, Casterline and Company, hardware, $20,000, Insured $12,000; Williams and Cook, $10,000, Insurance $20,000. The oil shipping portion of the city sustained no loss. Over 175 families are homeless.

Freedmen's Courts Abolished in Tennessee—Slave Marriages Legalized—Investigation of the Memphis Riots Progressing.

Memphis, May 26.—General J. S. Alcorn, United States Senator elect from Mississippi, has made application to General Fisk, of the Freedmen's Bureau, for a teacher in a freedmen's school at Friar's Point, Mississippi.

All the freedmen's courts in Tennessee were to-day abolished by the Assistant Commissioner, the law of the State making colored persons competent witnesses in all civil courts having gone into effect.

The civil rights bill legalizing slave marriages, giving their children the right of inheritance, and making all persons, without regard to color, equal before the law, has passed both branches of the Tennessee legislature, and became a law to-day.

The Congressional Committee are pursuing their investigation vigorously, examining from ten to fifteen witnesses daily. Every facility is offered them by the citizens for making the inquiry thorough.

Trade with Brazil Opened—French Troops Leaving Mexico.

Washington, May 27. The Department of State has official information that the imperial Government of Brazil has resolved to open the coastwise trade to ships of all nations. The opening of the Amazon Canal cannot be much longer delayed.

Information received at the Department of State reports that the French transport steamer Rhone left Vera Cruz for France, having on board one thousand soldiers whose term of service had expired. On the 2d inst. the French steam packet La France arrived there from St. Fazaire, bringing three hundred and sixty of the file of the foreign legion, and fifteen officers of the same corps and of the engineer corps.

From New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 26.—The Southern Pacific railway promises the completion of forty-five miles in two months.

The Levee Commissioners leave for Washington on Tuesday to ask Congressional assistance. They have drawn a memorial and sent it throughout the Union interested in the Mississippi levees.

Secretary Seward has written the Governor that Louisiana passports are "illegal and void."

The Texian cotton crops are less promising.

Fire at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 26.—The large wholesale drug house of Peter E. Blow, Main street, and the extensive job printing and stationery establishment of R. P. Studley & Co., adjoining, was burned this evening. Loss probably $150,000. The insurance is unknown.

Second Dispatch.—The total loss by the fire last evening proves to reached $250,000. P. E. Blow's loss is $100,000—insured for $50,000. Studley & Co.'s, $200,000—insured building, for $80,000.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

(ADDITIONAL ON THIRD PAGE.)

Fatal Accident—One Killed and Two Injured.

F. M. Schuliman, a wagonmaker in the employ of Phelps, Parke & Co., Manchester, was instantly killed on Saturday under the following circumstances. He had been in Manchester during the day, and was returning to his home in Ross township with a one horse wagon load of lumber. When in the vicinity of Jack's Bridge, and but a short distance from his residence, he seated himself with his two sons—who had accompanied him—on top of the load, intending to ride the remainder of the way. He had gone but a short distance in this manner when one of the boards slipped forward and struck the horse on the back, frightening him so much that he immediately started off down a steep declivity with frightful rapidity, throwing the two boys from their seats into the road. The hind wheels of the boys, aged fourteen, fell beneath the wheels which passed over his stomach, injuring him so severely that he will probably die in a few days. Edward, the other son, also of the two boys, also received injuries, which, although not fatal, are yet of a painful nature. The frightened horse still continued his flight, until reaching a point in the road, where one of the wagon upset and rolled over an embankment burying Mr. Schuliman beneath the debris of the wagon and its contents. Several men who had seen the runaway, hastened at once to extricate him, but on the removal of the wreck it was discovered that he was dead. His right ear having been cut entirely off and his head horribly crushed.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body yesterday, when a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Advertising Agent

City and country merchants generally experience much difficulty in attending to advertisements, and seldom know which journal will prove most advantageous for them to patronize. In most large cities there are established advertising agencies, which prove of invaluable benefit to the mercantile community. In this city, Mr. William Bingham, Jr., at the Adams Express company has successfully established such an agency. Thoroughly posted on the circulation and standing of every journal in the country, his services will prove invaluable to the advertiser. He is an honorable, fair dealing and trustworthy gentleman, possessing the confidence of all who have had business transactions with him. He is the authorized agent to receive advertisements for the Gazette and all other papers throughout the State and the Canadas. We cheerfully commend him to the public.

Stealing Silver Spoons.

William Parker, with a friend, as is alleged, went into Holtzheimer's (formerly Fricker's) saloon, on Fifth street, on Saturday, and called for a meal, which was duly served up, but for which they seemingly forgot to pay, and were accordingly hailed by the man at the desk as they ascended the steps from the subterranean retreat. During the parley hard words passed, and jostling, silver spoons, marked "Fricker," were found on Parker's person. Thereupon he was held in custody, a charge of larceny preferred, and the accused, in default of bail, was committed for trial.

Justice Jancey.—With pleasure we direct the attention of our readers to the card of William Jancey, Notary Public, Justice of the Peace and Real Estate Agent, office corner of Butler and Penn streets, Lawrenceville. Aside from attending to all matters connected with his legal commissions, he gives special attention to the purchase and sale of real estate, and the collection of rents. Justice Jancey is favorably known to the community as a correct and honorable gentleman and any business entrusted to him will be carefully and promptly attended to. All descriptions of legal conveyances are drawn up in the neatest and most correct of styles, and are warranted to stand the test of a jury.

Re-committed.—Peter Yost, accused of abandoning his wife, has been recommitted for another hearing by Alderman Serain.

Another Tragedy—Escape of the Murderer—Coroner's Inquest.

One of the most unprovoked and reckless murders that we have been called upon to record for a long time, took place on Saturday night in the Borough of Temperanceville, on the south side of the Monongahela river. The facts are as follows: About nine o'clock on Saturday night a young man named Roberts, in company with several others, entered the tavern of charles H. Stein, near the Mill Run, and called for some liquor, which was given them. Subsequently the party—with the exception of Roberts, who withdrew from the rest and stood at the farther end of the counter—became very noisy, and were ordered to leave by Mrs. Stein. This they refused doing, when Stein, who stood behind the bar, drew a revolver and fired two shots into the crowd, which fortunately struck no one. He then fired at Roberts, who fell to the floor without a groan. The party who had created the disturbance fled immediately from the scene, and Stein, who has but one leg, made instant preparation for flight. Meeting two boys in the street he engaged them to row him across the river, which they did. On reaching this side he went to Shields' grocery in the First ward, where he borrowed a dollar, out of which he paid the boys ten cents each, and started up Penn street, since which time nothing has been heard of him. About half an hour after the shooting had taken place the men who had accompanied Roberts to Stein's house returned and found him lying just where he had fallen. On lifting him up they discovered that his face and bosom were dyed in blood, and that he had been shot in the right temple, about an inch above the eye. He was still alive though unable to speak intelligibly. A litter was prepared and he was taken to the residence of his father in Monongahela borough, where he expired a little before midnight.

The news of the occurrence did not reach the authorities until fully an hour after the perpetration of the

FOR GOVERNOR:

MAJ. GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,

OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

GEN. GRANT ON THE SITUATION.

On Saturday we published the conversation between General GRANT and the editor of the Lewistown Journal, as detailed by the latter. According to this account he does not take the rose colored view of the situation South in which the President and Secretary of State delight. He thinks the present temper of the Southern people is much worse now than when actual hostilities ended, that large classes of the population, especially of such as were not subjected personally to the horrors of the war, are bitterly hostile to the national government, and that the influence of General LEE is decidedly pernicious, and wielded in contravention of assurances given at the time of his surrender. All intelligent and dispassionate observers are of the same opinion, whether deciding upon personal inspection, or forming judgments from current events and the tone of the Southern press and deliberative assemblies.

What has produced this change? Who is answerable for it? When the rebel armies surrendered the South was at the mercy of its conquerors. This was felt by the people of that section. Hence, while they desired easy terms of accommodation, they were ready to accept the best they could get. The President, without any warrant in the Constitution or Laws, assumed authority to dictate conditions of adjustment. His language, at first, was as imperious as that of any oriental despot. What he demanded, and continued to insist on, was yielded. Presently, however, his own views and purposes changed, and he began to make abatements. He relinquished points he had pronounced essential. Shortly after the convocation of Congress he assumed the attitude of standing between Congress and the rebel States, resisting all the exactions of the former. Now, he even goes so far as to deny the right of any department of the government, or all combined, to impose terms of restoration upon the revolted States or populations. Now, we undertake to say the change in Southern feeling and opinion, to which Gen. GRANT points, was brought about by the change in the President's policy, and has kept even pace therewith.

The Southern people have, at length reached that point, where they hope, under the leadership of the President, to be again masters in the government they sought to destroy, and to lord it over the men by whose wisdom and valor their traitorous schemes were frustrated. No body ever suspected the secession leaders at the South of being fools. They know what they are about; what the President's Policy implies, directly and contingently; and out of Despair have gathered Hope. We do not blame them half as much as we do the—President and the northern men who are acting with him.

"WE INSTANTLY DISMISS the idea that Senator Cowan would engage in a plot to overthrow the Republican party of this State. Those who know him will be slow to believe that he would do an underhanded thing. If Senator Cowan desired to see Mr. Clymer elected, or to see General Geary beaten and some one else elected, we are sure he would not permit that fact to develope itself through some plot or intrigue. Were he a small, dirty politician, regardless alike of his own character and of the means used to compass disreputable ends, we might perhaps give credence to the rumors which associate him with schemes for the betrayal of the party that elevated him to the seat he holds in the Senate."—Commercial.

Five years ago last January Mr. COWAN was elected by the Republicans to a seat in the United States Senate. He was so elected in consequence of his professions of agreement with them in doctrines and policies. But for these professions he would not have received the vote of a single member of the Legislature either on joint ballot or in caucus. Has he made those professions good? Very far from it. While maintaining a nominal and sinister connection with Republicans in the Senate, and attending their caucuses, his speeches have commonly been in consonance with those of Mr. SAULSBURY, of Delaware, and Mr. DAVIS, of Kentucky, and on almost all important divisions he has recorded his vote with theirs. All through the war he did much more to embarrass the government, and strengthen the hands of the rebels, than his Democratic colleague, Mr. BUCKALEW.

In what political canvass, since Mr. COWAN'S accession to the Senatorship, has he been found co-operating with his old friends, to preserve their ascendancy? All working republicans believe they have felt the pressure of his shoulders against them in every contest. The democrats have continually found such aid and comfort in his speeches that they have volunteered to give them a wide dissemination. They have felt he was with them.

Now, we admit the legal right of a Senator to regulate his official conduct by his own will. The Laws do not recognize and enforce his obligations to any political party. But morally, a Senator is bound to act up squarely to the professions on which he obtained his eminence, or else to vacate it. On this presumption the republicans of Pennsylvania, lately assembled in State Convention, formally declared Mr. Cowan "had disappointed the hopes, and forfeited the confidence of those to whom he owed his place," and "most earnestly requested him to resign." Not a few of the members of that Convention are Mr. Cowan's equals in natural ability and in culture; all of them in the qualities of genuine manliness. They "know him," and yet believe he is doing "an underhanded thing."

We make these remarks not so much to disparage Mr. Cowan, as to defend the republican party, and many of its foremost men, from one of those thrusts the Commercial, under one pretext or another, is continually giving them.

"THE NEW YORK Times, a conservative Republican sheet, in its issue of Wednesday last, takes the Gazette to task for its comments, but our neighbor has not thought proper to notice its strictures."—Post.

Our cotemporary had better learn to speak truth of its neighbors. The strictures of the New York Times were fully responded to by us on Friday last.

THE Springfield (Ill.) Journal, says:

"A prominent general officer who has been stationed in the South since the war, and whose duties have been such as to bring him in constant contact with the people, gives it as his firm conviction that the North, through Mr. Johnson's course, has lost all that it gained in the war, except a nominal abolition of slavery."

THE St. Louis Dispatch of the 24th instant says:

"A special dispatch announces the failure of Einstein & Rosenfield, brokers, at New York. Their property in this city was attached this morning."

Public Shearings.

The able and interesting article which we give below is from the pen of Dr. Henry Boynton, of Woodstock, Vt. Dr. B. is connected with the Mirror and Farmer, as editor of the Wool Department, from which journal we copy:

"The movements being made in New York, in various parts of Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, for holding public sheep shearings, we regard as very favorable indications that the leading men engaged in Sheep Husbandry are gradually finding their way toward a true and permanent basis for future operations. Wool-growing, like all other branches of business, must have its fluctuations. Even if we could enjoy the advantages of a just, equitable and permanent tariff, there are many causes which will produce their varying effects upon this department of labor. But still the business of growing wool, if followed with a reasonable degree of patience and intelligence, will always bring a larger return than any other agricultural pursuit. The experiments which are now being made in this country in the art of sheep breeding have never been equalled, certainly not excelled, by any people in the world. No chemist in his laboratory, anxious to secure immortality for his name by making some addition to the already extended field of chemical science, pushes his investigations with a stronger zeal than does the breeder of Merino sheep. And we love to see this work go on. We can never reach perfection. But while some will always be governed more by fancy than by reason, while some will always labor to bring in the aid of factitious circumstances to secure a temporary currency to ideas which may have no foundation in reality, the fundamental fact on which the business of wool-growing can alone be permanently grounded, is wool. In the end, this whole question of Sheep Husbandry must, in the nature of things, settle itself upon this truth, namely: The ram which carries and fathers the most wool is the best. This must lie at the bottom of every other fact, and if, in any given breed of sheep, to the greatest attainable quantity of wool we can add weight of carcass, completeness of form and symmetry of outline, so much the better. The beautiful will then have crowned the useful, and each shall make the other more attractive. But a beautiful form and symmetrical contour are only ornaments; they are not essentials; and if to these we sacrifice the indispensable and fundamental fact of wool we shall in the end fail. It is for this reason that we receive with peculiar satisfaction any intimations of efforts being made to find out how much wool our sheep do produce. To accomplish this object we wish there could be a public shearing in every wool-growing county in the country, where no means should be left unemployed to prevent every possibility for deception. We are glad to see any beginnings in this work, for by and by we trust a proper standard of workmanship will be to result. As yet we have seen no arrangements which come up to our ideas of the necessary requirements for a public shearing. In any field of study, no experiments can be reliable unless they are conducted with the most careful and rigid scrutiny. Something, but not much, can be told by a single shearing of a single animal. If we really wish to learn anything worth knowing, the experiment should be followed up from year to year. No prize should be offered for any sheep until it has been shorn, publicly at least, two years in succession, and better if the time should be three years. Let competitors present their animals when their first fleece is to be taken off, with such a history of the manner of keeping as a society should direct. Then have them shorn, the wool to be properly cleansed, and the animals all put into the care of one man, to be kept by him till another year comes round, then to be shorn again, and so the third year. By this time we should find out beyond the possibility of a doubt which were the best animals, and a premium would then mean something. If a certain class of sheep will produce just as much and just as good wool, while they carry only 40 per cent. of extraneous matter in the fleece, as another class which shall be found to carry 60 per cent. of extraneous matter, all other things in the two classes being equal there can be no doubt which is the best, and the former class will as surely be the winner in the long race for public favor, as that men shall continue to breed sheep. It cannot be otherwise, even if every man willed it. The 20 per cent. extra foreign substance is a dead loss, and though the individual may contrive means to conceal it, the public is sure to discover it in time.

If it shall be proved that a given amount of wool cannot be grown on a given carcass without a definite amount of extraneous matter, and that the increase of wool will more than balance the cost of producing the foreign substance, then the public will not hesitate to accept and cultivate such sheep. Let the work go on then. We glory in the onward-marching enterprise of our western brothers. We have been wont to think that New England is the peculiar home of scientific and practical enterprises, but she is now waiting for other sections of the country to do the work which she should have long ago commenced."

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, May 23, 1866.

Messrs. Editors Gazette:—General F. B. Blair held a Johnson meeting a few days since at Louisiana, Mo. The meeting was not large, but quite spirited. It was composed of a class of citizens that had not been seen in the town for a long time—persons that have been in the rebel army and bushwackers, together with all of the unterrified democracy. Lane, of Kansas, is standing badly with the party with which he formerly acted, and is politically ruined; his moral character is very bad. It is hinted that General Carney, of Leavenworth, is to be the successor of Pomeroy in the United States Senate. Carney is said to support Johnson. If so, it is only his wealth that can place him there, which, with so radical a Legislature, is not at all likely to succeed. The West, particularly Missouri, is most decidedly bitter against Johnsonism; indeed, Missouri is the most radical of the Western, if not of the United States, and this radicalism, which is another word for strict justice, is filling the State with a class of emigrants no other State can boast of in the most enlightened and enterprising of the Eastern States.

BURNING OF THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Max Maretzek publishes a very curious statement regarding the recent destruction by fire of the New York Academy of Music. He seems to insinuate—nay, directly charges—that some high personages of the Metropolis caused to be fired, not only the Academy but likewise Barnum's Museum and Butler's "444" Broadway. At the Academy, he states, the fire was first discovered in the parquette, and almost simultaneously it broke out from the roof. Brimstone pervaded the atmosphere throughout the house. He charges certain unnamed parties with having entered upon a crusade against the sufferers in the recent amusement place fires, and even says that Stephen H. Branch so far back as last November, predicted that his Academy would within a year be burned down. Maretzek's statement is certainly very plausible and the charges will probably be thoroughly investigated.

—Mr. Gladstone says: "There is nothing so insidious as financial difficulty. It approaches with smiles and caresses. Borrowing for the first time appears open to no objection. There is nothing in it alarming or menacing. It is like the cub of the lioness spoken of by one of the Greek poets, which was rashly taken by the hunter into his house. When it was young, it was reared with his dogs and placed among his children. It was mild in temper, and fawned upon every one. But when it grew up and felt its strength, it deluged the house with gore."

—A scandal case is creating much gossip at Montreal. Young Desbarats married the daughter of Judge Smith. Shortly after the event, Mrs. Robert Esdaile, at a large party, asserted that Desbarats neglected his wife, and that she looked ill in consequence. This Mrs. E. repeated frequently. Damages are claimed from Mrs. E.'s husband to the amount of $10,000; but if an apology is made in open court, and $1,000 given to some charity, Desbarats would be satisfied.

—An eight hour ordinance has been passed by the Detroit Common Council. The scale of prices for labor is as follows: Street laborers working ten hours a day get $1 65 per day, while those working eight hours get only $1 35. Man and team working 10 hours get $8 75—8hours, $8.

—A New Orleans paper cries out against the gigantic increase of prostitution in that city, and says that the "most promising men in the community are being enrolled within the hideous grasp of the monster."

—The paper on which the books are printed that are used in the primary schools of Austria is made from the leaves of Indian corn and has a yellowish tint, less fatiguing to the eye than the white of ordinary paper.

—The Barstenbinder case (shipping nitro-glycerine to California) is at an end, the Commissioner deciding that, Barstenbinder being absent from the city at the time the shipment was made, he cannot be held constructively guilty of a crime.

—Engineers have arrived at New Orleans to survey the passes at the mouth of the Mississippi, with a view of improving navigation to the Gulf, and also to search for a bayou, or canal outlet, to lessen the volume in the river, and thus prevent overflow.

—At Springfield, Mass., there is a popcorn man who is also a good Methodist, but he got business sadly mingled with things spiritually at a late prayer meeting, when he attempted to join in the hearty responses of "Amen," he cried out instead, "Pop-corn!" His sense of dignity led him to apologize in open meeting for his lapsus linguæ.

—The Government have awarded a contract to Henry S. Welles, of New York, to raise the vessels in the river and harbor of Savannah. These vessels were sunk by the rebels to obstruct the channel. The gunboats and other vessels were scuttled and sunk at the time the city was evacuated. There are in all about twenty, some of them very valuable, with all their guns and armament on board.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

UNION FENCE COMPANY,

PALMYRA, OHIO.

A new style of Fence, manufactured by the Union Fence Company. The beauty of design, combined with strength and durability, renders this fence an ornament to any dwelling, and we trust satisfactory reasons have been given why it should be universally adopted as an inducement to their children, as a monument to the following facts:

First—In the manufacturing of this fence we use no unsound or unseasoned lumber.

Second—All our work is done by machinery, by simply fitted and driven together with lead and oil.

Third—By a novel method the whole is finished with a double coating of the best white lead, oil and sand, giving when completed, the appearance of a solid granite or brown stone.

Fourth—When set up each section is supported by an adjustable iron brace, and rests upon a heavy stone base set into the ground at a sufficient depth to secure it against the action of frost, all the holes or cavities for the posts being filled in with the clamps and so perfectly cemented that decay by the accumulation of water is impossible.

Fifth—The ornamental portion of the fence are provided with heavy iron posts of new and beautiful design, while the fancy work upon adjustable brackets can be replaced in a moment should they need never be out of order.

Last but not least, all these advantages are offered and will be furnished at not to exceed the cost of a good plain fence.

The Palmyra fence will find it to the advantage to examine samples of different styles of the fence at the Warehouse of the PITTSBURGH AGENCY, 75 Federal street, Allegheny.

SAVE THYSELF.

A CURE FOR INTEMPERANCE.

DR. S. Cutter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.

The greatest Nerving ever discovered. The vitalizing principle of life. Acting upon the Nervous System Directly to the Particle Centers, making it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to its discovery, the Inebriate was beyond the reach of human help. Reformation was impossible. Now, reformation is not only possible, but certain. Any person who will use this Bitters for a period of three months, may rest assured that the desire for intoxicating drinks will entirely cease to exist. As a medicine it is always the choice of the stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors. It will restore the healthy tone of the stomach, and all persons addicted to the use of liquors, opium, morphine, arsenic, tobacco, &c., will find it removes the morbid appetite, or craving, so frequently experienced by inebriates. Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.

Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate, and other prisons, has established the positive fact that they are a speedy, safe, and certain cure for all the approval of the attending surgeons of all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and by a majority of the many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of intoxicating and stimulating liquors. In fact, as a Nervine for Neuralgia, Sick Headache, Nervousness, Nervous Debility, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and Retail Agents.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

(ADDITIONAL ON FIRST PAGE.)

Between three and four o'clock on Saturday morning a fire occurred on Liberty street, opposite the "Union Depot" of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, by which ten buildings were destroyed or more or less damaged. It originated in a small shed in the rear of the "Delmonico" Dining Saloon, No. 411, and the flames rapidly communicated to the main building, which was soon enveloped in flames. A stable immediately adjoining the shed, on Spring alley, occupied by Messrs. Kier, Glover and Company, next took fire, and was totally destroyed, together with two horses and three wagons belonging to the firm. By this time the "Delmonico" was almost consumed, and the flames had communicated to the building adjoining, occupied by Messrs. Wm. Kennedy and Company, soap manufacturers, and Messrs. Kier, Glover and Company, fire brick manufacturers, as a warehouse and office. From this the fire spread to the three adjoining buildings, Nos. 413, 415 and 417, occupied respectively by Mrs. Gray, Mr. Bell and Messrs. A. F. Faber and Company, fruiters and confectioners, and J. and W. Fairley, flour and feed dealers. These buildings were totally destroyed, together with all their contents, with the exception of the one occupied by the Messrs. Fairly, located on the corner of Liberty street and Stevenson's alley. It was so badly damaged that it will be necessary to rebuild it. The progress of the fire on Liberty street was checked at Stevenson's alley, through the exertions of the firmen. In the meantime the flames had communicated to the livery stable of Messrs. James Dain & Sons, Nos. 410 and 412 Penn street, extending from Penn street to Spring alley. The hay and other combustible matter in the stable quickly ignited, and for a time it was feared that the entire block of buildings facing on Penn street, and bounded by Stevenson's alley and Canal street, would be destroyed. The stable contained a large number of horses, carriages, omnibuses, etc., all of which, fortunately, were removed in safety. The building, however, was gutted. Immediately opposite the stable, on Spring alley, was a row of five three-story brick dwelling houses, owned by Mr. Seibert, of the Fifth ward. Two of them were gutted, and a third greatly damaged. The dwellings were occupied by four families named Myers, Andree, Rapp and Paulish, all of whom succeeded in removing their household effects, although in a damaged condition. The large building of Messrs. Wells & French, Steam Spring Works, No. 405 Liberty street, also took fire, but the flames were extinguished after a portion of the roof was burned. The machinery was also considerably damaged by water, and operations will be suspended for several days.

The origin of the fire is not certainly known. One rumor is that the fire broke out in the kitchen of the Delmonico Dining Saloon, while it was asserted by some that it first broke out in the stable of Messrs. Kier, Glover & Co. The loss cannot be estimated at present, but it will be quite heavy, as none of the parties succeeded in saving any of their stock.

The Delmonico, owned by T. J. Blackmore & Co., had been recently fitted up in a handsome style, and the loss will fall heavily on the proprietors. They had an insurance of $1,500 on their stock and fixtures.

Mrs. William Kennedy & Co. and Messrs. Kier, Glover & Co., it will be remembered were burned out some few weeks since, and had only occupied the new premises since that time. Messrs. Kennedy & Co., lost $40 worth of soap. Messrs. Kier & Co. had a large number of fire brick in store, which were destroyed, in addition to which the firm lost the horses and wagons, noticed elsewhere. Both firms are insured.

Mr. Wray's loss is estimated at about eighteen hundred dollars, on which there is no insurance whatever. Messrs. Faber & Co., have an insurance on their stock of $14,000 in the Home Company of New Haven, Connecticut. Their loss will probably exceed that amount. Messrs. J. & W. Fairley's loss is quite heavy, but is fully covered by an insurance of $4,000 also in the New Haven Company. The building on Liberty street was a warehouse, one story in height, but had been fitted up as store rooms. It was insured for about $1,200.

Messrs. Wells & French, spring manufacturers, had an insurance of $1,500 on their building, divided between the Corn Exchange, Liverpool and London International Companies, which will cover the loss sustained. They also had an insurance on their machinery and stock, more than sufficient to cover the damage.

Messrs Bain & Sons' loss has not been ascertained. One of the partners has an insurance of $4,000 on his share, which is the only policy on the building. The firm will not be compelled to suspend business, as they saved their horses and vehicles. Mr. Seibert, owner of the dwellings on Spring alley, is insured in the Delaware Mutual.

During the fire a colored waiter named Richard Snyder, employed at the "Delmonico," was seriously burned about the face and body while attempting to remove some articles from the saloon. In endeavoring to escape, he fell and broke his leg, and was prevented from his perilous position and removed to his residence, corner of Webster and Crawford streets, where he is lying in a very dangerous condition.

The alarm of fire was not given until after the flames had gained great headway, and it was only by the most strenuous exertions of the firemen that the devouring element was stayed in its progress.

Welcome Showers.

The "long dry spell" has ended, but "G. A.'s" predictions have not been fully verified. He took us to task for announcing the failure of this prognostications on Tuesday last, and we acknowledge having slightly misrepresented him by omitting the word "probable." In a spirit of accommodation, wishing to gladden the hearts of our almost "dried up" community, he foretold that it would rain on saturday, but "the fall would be light." He came so near the mark this time, however, that we must give him credit, and express our conviction that he, more than any other man in our midst, is capable of judging of the weather, being a skilled meteorologist. The sky was overcast on Saturday, people's corns ached, and other indications existed that "G. A.'s" predictions would be realized, and the fact established that "ye local" of the Chronicle did see "an immense circle round the moon" on Friday night. But Saturday passed and dust-annoyed mortals retired to slumber in despair at the prospect of continued drought. But, Heaven be praised for opening its windows before the dawn of Sabbath morning. About three o'clock the pattering rain drops awakened us to a realization of the fact that a copious shower was falling. We first thought of "G. A.," and our brother scribbler, next of the tillers of the soil, and next of city denizens, and felt that they with us would feel thankful to the Ruler of the Universe for sending the much needed rain. "G. A." was a "little previous" as to the time, and mistaken in fortelling "that the fall would be light." The shower before daylight was quite heavy. It also rained during Sunday forenoon, and also in the afternoon, a few hours of sunshine intervening.

Where to Buy Your Tinware.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. J. C. Duffy, manufacturer of tin, copper, and sheet iron ware, No. 146 Grant street. Mr. Duffy is a first-class manufacturer, and manufactures with great care and skill. He keeps constantly on hand a full line of articles usually found in similar establishments, embracing all kinds of stoves, house furnishing goods, toilet articles and tinware. His prices are exceedingly low, and all economical housewives should give him a call. He an attentive, accommodating and clever gentleman, and the public will find it to their interest to patronize him. He is prepared to receive all orders for mechanical work, to which he will give his personal attention.

Coal! Coal!—Among the many enterprising firms in this city, perhaps none deserve the patronage of the community more than Dickson, Stewart and Co., No. 267 Liberty street. The members of the firm are each and every one gentlemen in the fullest acceptation of the term, and those persons doing business with them will have no cause but the most pleasant experience. The best quality of Youghiogheny coal will be furnished on an order received, either at the office or through the mail.

Cutting Affair.—Two strangers in the city, William Birch and John Graham, on Friday night last, quarreled at a drinking saloon on Liberty street, and during their jangling it is alleged Graham drew a knife (a common clasp) and cut Birch in several places in the left arm. The men were friends and the quarrel arose from too free indulgence in intoxicating drink. Graham was dispossessed of the knife by Birch, and induced to go to his hotel, and so the affair ended.

The Place to Purchase.—What challenges the admiration of a beholder more than to see a first class vehicle and pair of well compared horses dashing along our streets? We answer nothing, and only wish to add that the public can procure a real good carriage, that will compare favorably with any in the eastern market, and a set of admirable fitting harness is at Smith & Schaffer's, Diamond alley, below market street.

Conflagration at Oil City.—Private dispatches were received on Saturday stating that a terrible conflagration was raging in Oil City, and nearly the entire east side in ashes. Among the buildings burned were six hotels, fifty dwellings, and seventy-five stores, including some of the finest establishments in the place. The fire was unabated at last reports, on Saturday.

OUR EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Reconstruction Question—Caucus of Republican Senators—Adjournment Discussed—Reduction of Military Departments—Gov. Morton's Condition.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Times' Washington special says: In the caucus yesterday of the Republican members of the Senate, a general and very free interchange of views was had upon the Reconstruction question. It was agreed that the disfranchising section should be rejected, and the balance of the proposed amendments to the Constitution adopted.

Upon the matter of confirmation or rejection of the Presidential appointments, the moderate Senators argued that it would be running to carry on the warfare already inaugurated in executive session, and that if the Senate persisted in rejecting good men whose record for loyalty and integrity was unimpeached, the Republican party would be weakened, if not ultimately destroyed. This view of the matter seemed to have the preponderance, but final action was not taken, and the caucus adjourned to meet again on Monday next.

The Tribune's special says: The subject of an adjournment or recess, was taken up, and after considerable discussion it was deemed best to continue in session until about the middle of July, when, unless something is developed not now anticipated, an adjournment will be acted upon. The Constitutional amendments were taken up and discussed at length. The third section may be amended, or somewhat modified or strengthened, or propositions may be substituted so as to disfranchise forever certain classes of rebels, or forbid them from ever holding any office, either Federal or State. It was unanimously agreed that every attempt should be made to harmonize conflicting views, and when that was done them these amendments should be passed by a party vote, or thirty-three for and fourteen against it. The latter being the maximum number the President can rally to his support. The feeling all around is to unite upon the very best platform that can be secured. The caucus adjourned to meet on Monday morning at ten o'clock, when they will probably come to some final conclusion. There was a greater unanimity of sentiment, and a firmer determination developed to stand solidly together upon all important questions than has ever before been manifested.

The reduction of military divisions and departments has been under consideration for some time past in the War Department, and was probably the subject of Cabinet consideration to-day. It is generally believed that Gen. Thomas' military division will be abolished, and many if not all of the States under his command be merged into a department. It is also rumored that the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen will be superseded by Gen. Thomas, who will discharge the duties in connection with military commander.

Private letters from Indiana to individuals in this city gives a very discouraging account of Governor Morton's condition. But little hopes are now entertained of his final recovery, although his illness may be protracted for many months.

LATE FOREIGN ADVICES.

Cholera Increasing in Liverpool—The War Question—Embarkation of Austrian Troops for Mexico Countermanded—Command Accepted by Garibaldi—Money Panic Over.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The steamers Saxonia and America, from Southampton, May 16th, has arrived.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone moved to a second reading the Seat Bill. He said that it was the general wish of the House that the two bills be combined.

The Times says the terrible number of deaths from cholera at Liverpool are increasing. Dr. Ross, of the Helvetia, is dead. Three more emigrants have died. Cholera appeared at New Depot, at Bank Hall, and five patients have been removed to the workhouse.

The Congress question is again mooted, and France will join it with perfect disinterestedness, as will the Papal Government also.

The Darmstadt army has been placed on a war footing. Preparations continue, and war is concluded as imminent. Patriotic appeals are being made for contributions and the formation of a volunteer corps at Vienna. The Prussian Ambassador said he should leave immediately. In consequence, the Austrians occupied the Bohemian and Lusatian frontiers. The volunteer corps for Mexico has been disbanded. Cantonments were erected at Letchfield and Wirtemberg for the Bavarian army. It is reported that Prussia summoned Hanover for making warlike preparations, and announced the intention of occupying her military roads.

The Prussian reply to Austria's note upon the Duchies question was presented, and the settlement proposed by Austria declined.

A dispatch from Trieste says: The embarkation of Austrian volunteers destined for Mexico, has been countermanded. The corps has been disbanded and the greater portion enrolled in the army of the North.

It is reported that England, France and Russia, are negotiating in reference to the assembling of a Conference.

A telegram from Rotibor, of the 12th, says: Yesterday the 55th regiment of troops, the Bohemian, a Silesian frontier, between Odenburg and Prucuha. The Croats have occupied Petrovitz and Siebenhoff.

A telegram from Berlin, of the 12 inst., says: The reply of Prussia to the Austrian note of the 21st ult., upon the question of the Duchies, was presented yesterday in Vienna, and the settlement proposed by Austria is declined. Prussia makes no other proposals, but intimates that she may do so. Hopes are still entertained in some quarters for peace, probably on the ground that Austria will make some concessions.

Telegrams from Leipsic, of the 15th, says: Great excitement prevailed here owing to the report that the Austrians had crossed the Saxon frontiers, and that a collision between the Prussian and Saxon troops was imminent.

A telegram from Florence says: Garibaldi has accepted the command tendered him in the Italian army.

The latest from Vienna telegrams state that the preparations for war continue. Patriotic movements were taking place throughout Austria.

LONDON MONEY MARKETS, May 16.—The panic is over. There are no more failures reported. The Bank refused to make advances on Consols.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

St. Louis, May 16.—Resolutions on the state of the country adopted by the last Assembly yesterday are quite radical, and while they utter no word directly against the President, they rejoice at the continued functions of the Freedmen's Bureau, and urge the passage of the Civil Rights Bill. They reiterate the position the Assembly took last year in regard to negro suffrage, and claim that it is not that the Government ought at present to grant. They believe the basis of representation in Congress should be changed so as to meet exigencies growing out of the abolition of slavery, and that Jim Johnsonal measures and Congress should adopt any method of reconstruction that does not effectually protect all loyal persons in the Southern States, and abridge that of the rebellious traitors. Also, the chief fomenters of the rebellion should by due process of law, receive punishment. The motion to strike out this last resolution was lost by a decided vote, and the whole series passed without a dissenting voice.

All descriptions of Government Bonds bought and sold on liberal terms.

Gold, Silver and Coupons bought at highest rates, and Gold Drafts issued on New York.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, May 26, 1866.

Our local money market is very stringent, owing mainly to the withdrawal of deposits from banks for investment in government bonds, which are now selling at very low rates. Business men, of moderate means, who expected to close out their goods as fast as they did last season, find themselves most crabbedly embarrassed since they can get little or no accommodations at the banks, and to pay street rates, their business will not justify. There is another class who are hard up for funds, namely, those who are in the habit of investing every dollar they possess, out of their business, in anything that promises a good return. Heretofore they have been accustomed to get discounts at 6 per cent by giving government bonds as collaterals, but since the banks have invested largely in these securities themselves, they do not seem disposed to accommodate this class of borrowers.

Gold opened dull this morning in New York at a decline of 2¼ per cent from yesterday's quotations, and on the reception of the foreign news, declined still further, but subsequently rallied and closed firm at 139. There will doubtless be a large export demand for gold during the next thirty days, partly to pay for goods to arrive and to cover sixty day bills on Europe, which have to be protected by specie shipments; and no inconsiderable demand comes from parties going to Europe on pleasure excursions.

Five Twenty Bonds were well sustained today, and there was quite an active demand at prices ranging from 101¼ to 101¾. At these rates Five Twenties are cheaper than seven Thirties for permanent investment, though as a temporary employment of surplus balances, Seven Thirties are preferable, since the interest can always be collected again when sold.

Bank stocks are firm, while insurance stocks are very dull, and a good many holders are anxious to realize. There is still some inquiry for railroad shares, but the supply is large and prices fell off 5@. Reading and M. S. and Cleveland & Pittsburgh were especially active, the latter advancing 2%. Governments are firmer and more active under the advance to 2-20's at London. Gold Interest bonds are 1@2% better. There is no important amount of 5-20's returned by the steamer arriving this A. M. The next steamer may be expected to bring an important statement as to the result of settlement on the 15th at London. The rate on call loans is generally 7 per cent. Paper is pressed somewhat urgently at 9@7 per cent. for the best names. The improved aspect of affairs in London has checked the upward tendency in gold, and the premium has fallen materially during the morning. The market, however, has a certain support from its largely oversold condition. The sales of gold by government this May last amount to $22,500,000. The total shipments from this port for the week will amount to about $9,500,000. Foreign exchange is nominal at about yesterday's closing rate.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 26, 1866.

The produce markets have been moderately active throughout the week which has just closed, and in some articles, prices have fluctuated considerably, owing principally to the material advance in gold. There is a continued good local demand for Flour, and the grocery market is somewhat excited, with an upward tendency, while Provisions are steady without quotable change. Grain is very firm, and oats, Wheat and Corn, are in good demand and looking up.

GRAIN—We can report a sale of 2 cars prime Club Wheat at $2,25—to arrive. Oats firm, with sales in store at 65@66, and 1 car at 65@66, and 50 to 63. Sale of 1 car Shelled Corn at 80, and 1 do do at 82. Rye is in demand; sale of 1000 bushels, to arrive, at $1,00. No movement in Barley.

FLOUR—Is steady with a continued fair local demand for Flour, and we can report regular sales from store at $10,75 to $11,25 for fair to choice brands of Spring Wheat, and $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat brands. Rye Flour is selling at $6,50 to $6,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged at 14 for Shoulders; 17 for Ribbed Sides; 21½ for Plain Sugar Cured Hams, and 23@23½ for Canvassed do. Lard is selling at 20 to 21 for country, and22½ for city. Nothing doing in Mess Pork.

POTATOES—The demand is less active, and with continued liberal receipts, the market is dull and weak, while prices remain nominally unchanged. Sales in a regular way at $1,25 to $1,35 per bush, and $3,50 to $3,75 per bbl, as to quality.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged, with a supply somewhat in excess of the demand. Sales at 20 to 25 for common to strictly prime Roll.

EGGS—Steady and fresh packed sell readily at 22.

HAY—Is firm and higher, in consequence of light arrivals. Sales from scales at $25 to $30 per ton, for good to prime, in lots.

STRAW—Is dull; sales of 60 bbls inferior at 40 to 45. Prime is quoted at 55 to 60

CHEESE—Is dull but unchanged at 16 to 18, for Western Reserve.

SALT—Is quoted at $2,40 by the car load and the usual advance for small lots from store.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand at $2,65, and there is little or none offering. No movement in Clover or Timothy seed.

OIL—Sales of No. 1 Lard at $1,80@1,85.

BEANS—The demand is rather better, and prime White State are selling at $2 per bushel.

HOMINY—Small sales at $3,@4.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 26, 1866.

CRUDE—There was but little stir in the Crude market, and, in fact, this has been the case for several days past. Holders have been endeavoring to advance the price to 15 cents, bbls returned, and 20 cents, bbls included, and while some few sales have been made at these figures, yet they can hardly be taken as a fair criterion of the market, as sales were made to-day at 14 and 16@. As the stock is very much reduced and the prospects continue light, there is no disguising the fact that at present, holders have the advantage, and it is possible that within the next few days they may be able to realize the advance above reflected to, the advices from the East,as well as from Europe, cannot be regarded as favorab le, while the dullness and stagnation continue to be the leading characteristics at the wells. Sales of 500 bbls at 14@15@20 at 14; and 125 at 14½.

REFINED—There is still some inquiry for refined oil, but, generally speaking, the figures offered do not come up to the views of our refiners, and another drawback is that the great majority of them have sold close up, and in many instances for sixty days ahead. We can report a sale of six thousand barrels, for Philadelphia delivery, at 45½ for August; 46 for September; and 47 for October deliveries, the highest sale we have had to report this season, and it was all sold by one refiner. We are cognizant of an offer to-day for three thousand barrels, three thousand to be delivered in August, one thousand in October—at 46, but the party having the order was unable to fill it. The news of the foreign news is by no means encouraging, and it is said that quite a number of orders for export were withdrawn after the steamer had arrived. Free oil is dull and entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—There was but a single arrival of oil reported to-day, 304 for Fisher & Bro (receipts during the week.....16,548 bbls
Receipts last week.....37,065 "
Receipts since Jan. 1.....437,000 "

—The number 437,000 was put in type, by error, a sale of 1500 bbls reported, for June delivery in Philadelphia, at 42

Review of New York Wholesale Market

NEW YORK, May 26—The Post gives the following weekly review of the wholesale markets: There has been an active business in the dry goods trade during the past week, and prices have advanced, owing to an increase of the premium on gold. The following is a review:

FLOUR—During the week the market for low and medium grades was depressed, owing to the liberal arrivals of spring; holders submitted to a decline for the sake of effecting sales. Since Tuesday, a better demand prevailed and prices improved until to-day, when there was a reaction. The market closes dull at common grades, but firm for prime Wheat. We quote Extra State at $8,60 to $9,25 shipping ohio $9,90 to $10,30; St. Louis Extra $14,25 to $17.

WHEAT—There has been more activity and considerable variableness in prices. Early in the week there was much anxiety to sell and a decline was submitted to. Since Tuesday prices have improved, under a brisk demand. At the close, common grades of spring Wheat are easier, while choice Amber Club is higher. We quote Chicago Spring at $1,60 to $2,12; for inferior to choice Milwaukee Club $2,13 to $2,15; Amberclub $2,10 to $2,22.

CORN—Corn has advanced, closing unsettled at 80@84 for unsound, and 86@88 for prime; prices have daily fluctuated with limited arrivals There has been a good trade.

PORK—The facilities for obtaining money on pork is not as great as formerly; persons prefer to put their money in stock. At the close prices were firm, at $30 62@36,50 for mess.

COFFEE—The market has been very quiet, and prices are unchanged.

COTTON—There has been a good business, the demand having been largely speculative; prices have gradually advanced, closing firm, at 41@41¼ for middling. Receipts for the week 1,721 bales, against the last, 23,732, and since September 1st, 735,725 bales.

PETROLEUM—The market has been irregular, but prices show a slight advance for crude, closing firm, at 27@27½. Refined has been dull, and prices are rather easier, closing firm, at 44@45; free oil ruled dull, at 55@56.

WHISKY—Whisky has been dull, but there has been no change in quotations.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Gold closed at 136. The Money Market was decidedly easier towards the close of bank hours, and capital was offered to the stock brokers at six per cent. The banks are lenders again, and money is likely to be more plenty next week. The Government Securities were decidedly better this afternoon. Old 5-20s and 7-30 notes sold up to 102.

There was considerable activity this afternoon on the street, on Consolidated Gregory gold shares, which advanced to 12.75. Pitholo Creek firm, and sold up to 3.00. United States was weak; the company have to mortgage their property to increase the production. The Stock Market was strong in the forenoon, and at the close there was an improved tendency on Michigan Southern and Pittsburgh. The following were the closing prices: New York Central, 95½; Erie, 67; Reading, 93½; Michigan Southern, 79½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90½; North Western, preferred, 58; Fort Wayne, 94½; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 29½.

The Post's money article says the news by the Saxonia and America that the panic in England was over, has had a reassuring effect here, and while gold has slightly declined, Government and other securities have gone up. The loan market is quiet at 7 per cent. Commercial bills are not offering very freely, and rates are 7@9 per cent. The stock market opened with a better feeling. Governments are stronger, and railroad shares are improving, except Erie, which is the weakest on the list. Before the first regular session New York Central was quoted at 94, Erie at 65, Reading at 93, Cleveland and Pittsburgh at 87, and Fort Wayne at 89½.

After the Board the market was regular. New York Central rose to 95½; Pittsburgh to 89¾; closing at 89¾; Quicksilver, 25½.

LATER.—Erie sold at 67¾. The steamers to-day took out for Europe $5,883,000.

The Commercial's money article says: The market is decidedly more buoyant. Under intelligence of an improved condition of affairs in London money is easier, the applications for loans being less urgent, and the banks in a somewhat better position, having gained during the week. Call loans have received a preference over discounts. It is not improbable, however, that the banks will soon conceive it to be their best policy to discount paper at the current high rates in preference to lending, as, by that course, they would insure 6@8 per cent for a period of two and four months. The result to borrowers on stocks would be to keep the rate on call loans firm, but only temporarily, as it is the policy of the Treasury to disburse as freely as circumstances will permit. During the week $723,530 of the temporary loans have been withdrawn from the Sub-Treasury. No clearing house certificates have been presented for payment. About a million dollars of compound notes have been redeemed during the week in the Sub-Treasury. A considerable amount of one year certificates of indebtedness has been presented by the banks in liquidation of checks drawn on account of gold sold by the Treasury. The Assistant Treasurer is prepared to redeem any certificates of indebtedness of June, July and August, at the Sub-Treasury, in lieu of their being sent to Washington, for redemption of course, which will materially facilitate their redemption.

Certificates presented at the Sub-Treasury must be accompanied with a schedule stating the date of the certificate and the amount of interest according to prices, the interest tables reckoned upon 365 days to the year. The certificate must also be endorsed with the words "pay the Secretary of Treasury for redemption," and be signed by the person to whom it is paid, the same party guaranteeing any previous endorsement that may be upon them.

The stock market is more active under the improved tone in affairs. The transactions are larger than for some time past, and generally at an advance upon the prices of yesterday's half-past 2 P. M. Board. New York Central advanced ⅜c. Erie was very active, and buyers' options were put out freely, but the price fell off ⅝c. Reading and M. S. and Cleveland & Pittsburgh were especially active, the latter advancing 2⅜. Governments are firmer and more active under the advance to 2-20's at London. Gold Interest bonds are 1@2% better. There is no important amount of 5-20's returned by the steamer arriving this A. M. The next steamer may be expected to bring an important statement as to the result of settlement on the 15th at London. The rate on call loans is generally 7 per cent. Paper is pressed somewhat urgently at 9@7 per cent. for the best names. The improved aspect of affairs in London has checked the upward tendency in gold, and the premium has fallen materially during the morning. The market, however, has a certain support from its largely oversold condition. The sales of gold by government this May last amount to $22,500,000. The total shipments from this port for the week will amount to about $9,500,000. Foreign exchange is nominal at about yesterday's closing rate.

Potatoes in Detroit

DETROIT, May 25.—The market through the week has been very active, none during the season surpassing it. The demand for shipments has been very large, and from 8000 to 10,000 bushels have been taken daily by the Cleveland line of steamers, principally for the eastern market. Prices reached as high as 90c for peach blows, 75 to 80c for the Mays, but buyers from the east have left by reason of high rates, and for a day or two the market has been rather dull with rates declined. To-day there are buying, with prices from 75c @80c for peach blows from teams. We also note sales of 700 bushels sacked and 1 car at 70c in bulk.—Tribune.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is still receding slowing at this point with two feet four inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. Considerable rain fell during saturday night and yesterday, which will at least be of great benefit to vegetation, if it does not produce a rise in the river.

There has not been a single arrival from below since our last report, and business at the main landing is almost at a standstill. The Glasgow and Argonaut are partially loaded, and will be ready to leave for St. Louis as soon as there is water. The Importer, is on the dock undergoing repairs. The Wanamita is receiving a coat of paint, and the balance of the boats in port are quietly laid up.

Capt. Lytle informs us that he will commence loading the Camelia for Cincinnati today, and, if so, she will be ready to leave tomorrow evening or Wednesday morning. The Brownsville packets are still running on time, though it is said that the Monongahela at the upper end, is getting very shallow. The Fayette, our only remaining competing boat, cleared on Saturday evening.

The Yorktown left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday morning. Gen Pemenia and Kate Robinson were advertised to follow on Monday. The Nora, en route for Cincinnati, and the Robt. Moore, en route for Pittsburgh, passed Louisville on Saturday. The Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday, says:

Capt. J. R. Hatcher was to have left Pittsburgh for St. Paul direct, with the tow-boat Imperial and Mollie Stone barge, last night, and will load here for Saint Louis and Saint Paul direct.

To Steamboat Owners and Captains:

GENTLEMEN—You are hereby notified that the recent order requiring the boilers of all steamers have the locked safety-valve, goes into effect on and after this, the 22d day of May. Those who neglect will therefore make the necessary provision.

J. L. HAMILTON,
MARTIN KELLY,
Local Inspectors.

We extract the following items from the cairo correspondence of the Louisville Commercial under date of May 24 and 25th:

Silver Cloud, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, Armenia, Pittsburgh to Memphis, and Kate Robinson, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, Armenia, Pittsburgh to Memphis, and Kate Robinson, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, are all here. Some lying second in respectable appearance, piped off a most unprincipled hoax on the representatives of the press, on Wednesday last. They arrived relatively that he had just arrived from Mound City, and had seen the steamer Morning Star destroyed by fire, and lying at the landing at that place—that all the passengers got off safe, but lost almost all their baggage. As a large number of steamers are moored to Mound City, the light of which, during the night, was seen by the telegraph was not at work between the two cities, it was naturally supposed that the dirty work was done by the rebels, and the various correspondents here could not do otherwise than report history to their several newspapers. This morning the pilots of the Morning Star arrived here, and inform us the steamer is all laden, as you will see by manifests inclosed.

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime.

PREPARED FOR

G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the Country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of acting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination, and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of its final effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to overcome these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it, as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

For sale in Pittsburgh by all Druggists.

The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed!

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company at their Laboratory, Nos. 288, 300 and 302 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, Duane Street.

This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, slaughter-houses, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, etc., and for boiling vegetables and meats for invalids nurses (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive effluvia exist. They are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gases and smells by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air, they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous and disagreeable gases, as many articles are now used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, to which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's Rooms.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 20, 1866.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:

DEAR SIR: This will be presented to you. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all odors.
